Dear Parents/ Carers

Application for place/s at the Tudor Breakfast Club

Tudor Primary's breakfast care provision runs from 7.45am to 8.45am each morning. All children from Nursery up to Year 6 are invited to apply. We are pleased to be able to offer places for up to 80 children.

The provision will be delivered by existing staff members of Tudor Primary. A range of breakfast food items will be offered (toast/cereals/fruit/eggs) as well as a range of activities including computing, arts and sports; and a relaxing area for reading and listening to the radio. There will also be opportunities for homework support. Food will only be on offer from 7.45- 8.20am. Children should be dropped off at the club via the new door to the hall down the steps at the front of Tudor School.

The cost of the club will be:

-£3.00 per session for a single child -£5.00 per session for 2 siblings -£6.00 per session for 3 siblings

Please ask for details of costs to those in receipt of the Pupil Premium Grant (PPG).

Payments must be received by the school via schoolgateway in advance of the sessions. Please see the office/ school website if you require support on using this online payment system.

The school has the right to remove the offer of breakfast provision to families if payments are not received and/ or children fail to arrive at the club without notice. To aid clear communication, please add your mobile number to the slip below for our records. You can contact Breakfast Club on 07541 552 034 – please use this number to inform us if your child will not be attending a pre-booked breakfast club session.

Please highlight on the slip below which days you would like your child/ children to attend the club.

Regards,

Mrs Donley
