

The Victorian Crimes and Punishments

By Marc Graboleda-Perales

Life as a Victorian

- Life as a victorian was tough so many people did crimes for money and food.
- Even children were punished.
- These are pictures of Victorian children who did crimes.

77
4

26 April 73

Name, N^o Joseph Lewis 5248
and Aliases.

Description

Age (on discharge) — 11
 Height — 4 ft 6 1/2
 Hair — Lt Brown
 Eyes — Blue Grey
 Complexion — Fresh
 Where born — England
 Married or Single — Single
 Trade or occupation — None
 Distinguishing marks — Scar right wrist

Address at time of apprehension — 32 Prince St Rotherhithe

Place and date of conviction — Greenwich 10 April 73

Offence for which convicted — Simple Larceny, s.o.d.
 28 lbs of Iron = 3/4

Sentence — 1 Cal Mo 11th

Date to be liberated — 9 May 1873

Intended residence after liberation — Same

Previous Convictions

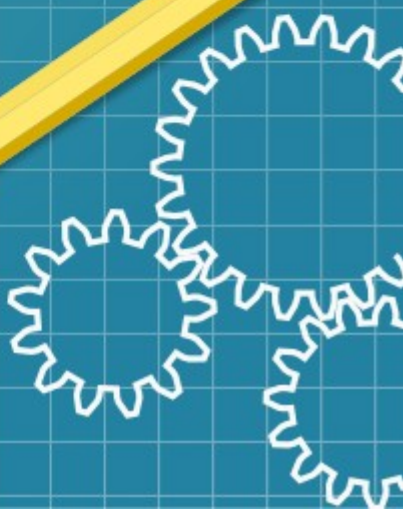

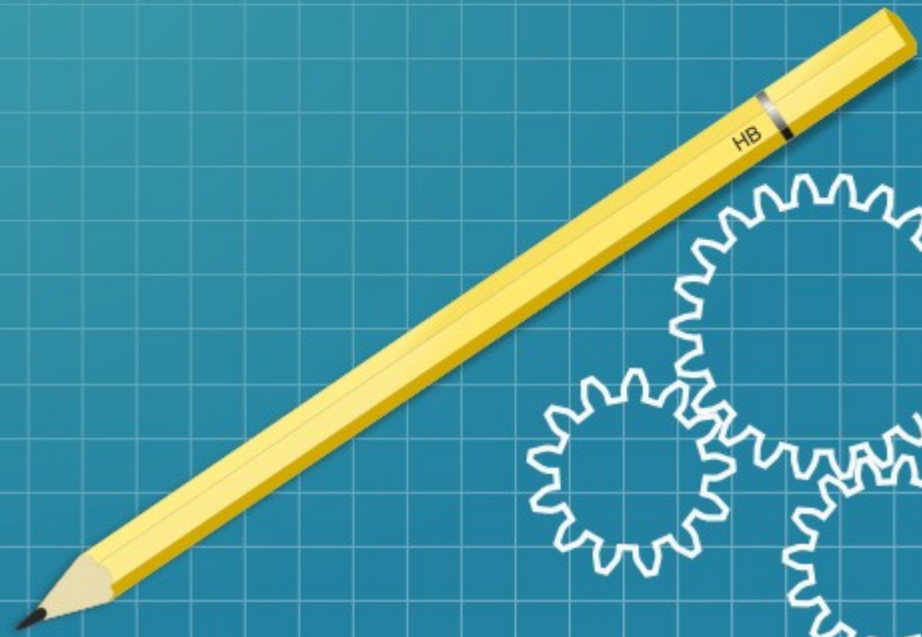

Summary

By Jury

Remarks, antecedents &c.

This child was only 11 years old and was sentenced for a month of hard labour for stealing iron.

This child was 11 years old and was sentenced for a month of hard labour and 5 years in the reformatory.

323
4 Name. N^o John Gossins 5997 5 July 73
and Aliases.

Description

| | |
|----------------------|------------------|
| Age (on discharge) | 11 |
| Height | 4 ft 4 in |
| Hair | Br. Brown |
| Eyes | Br. Grey |
| Complexion | Fair |
| Where born | Worthing |
| Married or single | Single |
| Trade or occupation | None |
| Distinguishing marks | Scar on forehead |

Address at time of apprehension — 1 Senior Place, Worthing

Place and date of conviction — Richmond 18 June 73.

Offence for which convicted — Stealing of goods (growing)

Sentence — 1 Cal. M^o. S^t. 5 years, 1 Rep^y

Date to be liberated — 17 July 73

Intended residence after liberation — 13 Bryn Castle, East Ham, Essex.

Summary

11 March 71 - Stealing coal f. 12. 10 Days S^t. or 10 - Richmond

15 Feb 73 Stealing coal
Stealing coal
2 Cal. M^o. S^t. & whipped. Richmond

By Jury

Remarks, antecedents &c.
Det. sent 5 April 73

FACT:

- 1829 Sir Robert Peel introduced the First English Force.

The End

