Introduction

What support can the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Champions offer?

Help finding out what support is available for children with SEND

Support to navigate the Local Offer Website

Help finding local Parenting courses

Help finding out what local support groups are available

If you have any additional worries we can support you with learning and development, feelings of isolation or around your own wellbeing and confidence.

This support may be one to one or through parenting groups

" The SEND champions have been amazing!

They have given me back my confidence as a mother.

The strategies I have learnt with their help have been really useful and simple to use, thank you for such a great support network! "
